

Steven A. Browne

7911 Blacks Mill Road

Thurmont, MD 21788

Phone 301-271-1128

e-mail clakude@clakude.org

---

OBJECTIVE: To make a meaningful contribution to the field of public education by being an intentional, effective elementary school teacher.

SUMMARY

- Master's Degree Candidate, McDaniel College, Westminster, MD.
- Elementary Education
- BEST Teacher Certification Program
- Phase I Intern, Parr's Ridge Elementary School, Mt. Airy, MD

EDUCATION

- 2013-Present, M.A. Candidate Elementary Education, McDaniel College
- 1993, M.A. Communications, Annenberg School for Communications at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA
- 1990, B.A. Religion, Reed College, Portland, OR

WORK HISTORY

- Over twenty years experience in numerous private sector fields including biological research, horticulture, construction trades, landscaping, real estate investment, and estate liquidation.
- Supervisory experience: ran large-scale biological field experiments on national forest land. Supervised field crews working in multiple locations. Managed all aspects of data collection, analysis, and interpretation. Prepared research reports for federal government and academic audiences.
- Administrative experience: Managed all administrative tasks for growing company operating in multiple locations. Computerized all bookkeeping and payroll tasks. Designed and maintained company web page and produced other corporate marketing materials. Assisted in the writing of government grant proposals, and was responsible for maintaining current reporting status for ongoing government-funded research projects.

- Scientific Experience: Developed innovative technologies and techniques for eco-friendly management of forest insect pests. Formulated experimental biological products for use in field trials. Maintained a large living colony of insects for research purposes.